

Introduction

The 7th Malaysian Association of Veterinary Pathology (MAVP) Conference will be held from 20th-23rd August 2015 at Mahkota Hotel, Melaka. This conference focuses on pathology, diagnostic tools, treatment and epidemiology of important veterinary diseases. A comprehensive scientific program has been prepared which will include plenary, scientific and poster presentations by a range of knowledgeable experts in veterinary pathology and other fields of specialisation. This conference provides an essential platform for communication and networking among veterinary pathologist, government officials, researchers, academician, veterinary practitioners and students. Thus, the organising committee would like to invite related individuals to attend the conference and to visualise the beauty of veterinary pathology through sharing of passions, perspectives and experiences of our distinguished speakers and intriguing presentations. We will do our best to guarantee a valuable educational and inspiring experience for all participants. We are looking forward to welcoming all participants and spending a great time in Melaka, the historical city.
